A member's rights and duties are mentioned in the statutes and in the bylaws which can be obtained from the Secretary.

Terms & Conditions:

1 How do you become a member of B.S.C. Duitenberg?

You become a member of B.S.C. Duitenberg once you have submitted a completed membership form including your signature. By that you also authorize B.S.C. Duitenberg to write off the annual membership fee of your account.

This form can either be mailed to the address of Duitenberg (Bastille Room 307, Drienerlolaan 5, 7522 NB Enschede), handed in personally or send by e-mail to info@duitenberg.nl.

As long as you are not a member, you cannot participate in any of the committees of B.S.C. Duitenberg nor will you receive Duitenberg's periodic magazine 'Duitenplein 5'.

Any change in the above information must be in writing and addressed to the Secretary.

2 How do you remain a member in the coming years?

Membership runs for an indefinite period of time. The membership fee will be automatically written off your account every year. The association year coincides with the calendar year.

3 How do you terminate your membership?

The termination of membership has to be in writing i.e. by e-mail or by a letter addressed to the board. Maximally eight days after receiving the termination of the membership you will receive a confirmation. If a member wishes to terminate his/her membership after the third week of December in the year N, the member still has to pay the membership contribution for the year N and N+1.

If a member fails to meet any of the aforementioned financial obligations, the board may be forced to take action.
